

Professional Goals

Jane-Na Chang

1. I will revise my lesson plans and fully implement a student-centered classroom by the end of 2015-2016 school year.
2. I will earn the title and the recognition of the Master Teacher by the end of 2015-2016 school year.
3. I will continue to teach across disciplines by incorporating technology into daily lesson plans.
4. I will use differentiated instruction and accommodation to challenge advanced students and special needs students.
5. I will foster a nurturing, mutually respectful classroom atmosphere to promote learning; I will work closely with colleagues and parents to better help my students.
6. I will model life-long learning by taking coursework and participating in workshops to enhance my teaching.
7. I will challenge and advance myself from a presenter at local or regional workshops to state-level conferences.
