Summary of Work Experience

Teaching Experience:

Since moving to the United States from China in 1998, I have been involved in teaching Chinese in Chinese schools and in public schools within the community.

I was a tenured and full time Chinese teacher of Linden High School. The school Chinese class level from Chinese I in school year 2008-2009 to Chinese I, II, III, IV, IB

11th and IB 12th six levels in school year 2011-2012. 2009-2012, my students passed IB (International Baccalaureate) Chinese test, one student got full score, which was a big honor of the school. I instructed students who won 4th place of “First Annual Confucius Institute of Rutgers University Chinese Language Competition for NJ High School Students” in 2011. I am a main player for Great Wall Chinese program, organized by Chinese government, at Linden High.

Now I am teaching Chinese in H.B.Whitehorne middle school 5th to 8th grade.

Other Work Experience:

I also have worked as a reporter and editor for Chinese newspapers and magazines, both in China and in the United States, and published hundreds of articles, on major newspapers in China and Metro NY region, and received a number of awards, including a 2nd place award from National Education Committee of China for the published articles.
