

Professional Goals:

My recently goal is to create an atmosphere where students can take responsibility for their own learning by giving them the opportunity and the challenge to go beyond what they are learning in the classroom.

My future goal is to help each student see their importance in the world and the importance of gaining knowledge of Chinese language, so that they can contribute to the world community.