

Professional Goals

Jenny Shuijun Huang (黄水君)

My professional goals for the next three years are to:

- Continue to develop my professional skills by taking additional courses and programs in Chinese Second Language acquisition and education courses such as the ones offered by the STARTALK Program.
- Design IPA to better assess students' performance in all three modes of communication.
- Search for appropriate authentic materials and design activities to help students relate to the materials in the real world.

My long-term professional goals are:

- To be a highly effective master teacher in the Chinese language.
- To be the best Chinese teacher in the world.
