My goal will be 3 stages.

First, I would like to make myself as a better, effective Chinese teacher by attending different kinds of workshop or professional development whenever possible. I will try to attend National Chinese Conference every year and apply a longer workshop like Startalk for a few summers. It will ensure to improve my teaching practice dramatically.

Second, I will try to build up a solid middle school Chinese course foundation within two years. Eventually, I would like to build up a full scope of Chinese course from 7th grade to High school AP Chinese course.

Finally, as a Chinese language teacher, I will continue invoking students' interest of learning Chinese language and culture and support them as lifelong learner.
